Notice of Privacy Practices

This notice describes how medical information (Protected Health Information or "PHI") about you may be used and disclosed and how you can get access to this information. Please review it carefully.

Our Uses and Disclosures

We typically use or share your health information in the following ways.

Treat you

We can use your health information and share it with other professionals who are treating you.
Example: During the course of your treatment, the physician determines that he/she will need to consult with your primary care physician. The physician will share information with that physician and obtain the physician's input.

Health Information Exchange – We, along with other New Jersey health care providers, participate in Jersey Health Connect, a health information exchange (HIE) which allows patient information to be shared electronically through a secured network that is accessible to the providers treating you. We may disclose your PHI to Jersey Health Connect HIE, unless you opt out of participating in the HIE.

Run our organization (our health care operations)

We can use and share your health information to run our practice, improve your care, and contact you when necessary.
Example: We use health information about you to manage your treatment and services.

Bill for your services

We can use and share your health information to bill and get payment from health plans or other entities.
Example: We give information about you to your health insurer so it will pay for your services.

How else can we use or share your health information?

We are allowed or required to share your information in other ways – usually in ways that contribute to the public good, such as public health and research. We have to meet many conditions in the law before we can share your information for these purposes. For more information see:
www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/index.html.

Help with public health and safety issues

We can share health information about you for certain situations such as:

- Preventing disease
- Helping with product recalls
- Reporting adverse reactions to medications
- Reporting suspected abuse, neglect, or domestic violence
- Preventing or reducing a serious threat to anyone's health or safety

Do research - We can use or share your information for health research.

Comply with the law - We will share information about you if state or federal laws require it, for example, with the U.S. Dept of Health and Human Services if it wants to see that we're complying with federal privacy law.

Respond to organ and tissue donation requests - We can share health information about you with organ procurement organizations.

Work with a medical examiner or funeral director - We can share health information with a coroner, medical examiner, or funeral director when an individual dies.

Address workers' compensation, law enforcement, and other government requests - We can use or share health information about you, in accordance with applicable law:

- For workers' compensation claims
- For law enforcement purposes or with a law enforcement official
- With health oversight agencies for activities authorized by law
- For special government functions such as military, national security, and presidential protective services

Occupational Health - We may disclose your Protected Health Information to your employer in accordance with applicable law, if We are retained to conduct evaluation relating to medical surveillance of your workplace or to evaluate whether you have a work-related illness or injury. You will be notified of these disclosures by your employer or as required by applicable law.

Respond to lawsuits and legal actions - We can share health information about you in response to a court or administrative order, or in response to a subpoena.

Our Responsibilities

- We are required by law to maintain the privacy and security of your protected health information.
- We will notify you promptly if a breach occurs that may have compromised the privacy or security of your information.
- We must follow the duties and privacy practices described in this notice and give you a copy.
- We will not use or share your information other than as described here unless you authorize us in writing. You can revoke your authorization at any time, for future uses and disclosures of your information. Let us know in writing if you want to revoke an authorization.

Your Rights

When it comes to your health information, you have certain rights. The health and billing records we maintain are the physical property of our office but the information in those records belongs to you, unless limited by applicable law. This section explains your rights and some of our responsibilities to help you.

Get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record

- You can ask to inspect or get an electronic or paper copy of your medical record. Ask us how to do this (including through our patient portal).
- We will provide a copy of your medical record within 30 days of your request. We will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee as allowed by law, which you will be advised of in advance.

Ask us to amend your medical record

- You can ask us to amend health information about you that you think is incorrect or incomplete.
- We may say "no" to your request, but we'll tell you why in writing within 60 days.

Request confidential communications

- You can ask us to contact you in a specific way (for example, home rather than office phone) or to send mail to a different address.
- We will say "yes" to all reasonable requests.

Ask us to limit what we use or share

- You can ask us not to use or share certain health information for treatment, payment, or our operations. We are not required to agree to your request, and we may say "no" if it would affect your care.
- If you pay for a service or health care item out-of-pocket in full, you can ask us not to share that information (for the purpose of payment or our operations) with your health insurer. We will say "yes" unless a law requires us to share that information.

Get a list of those with whom we've shared information

- You can ask for a list (accounting) of the times we've shared your health information for six years prior to the date you ask, who we shared it with, and why, except for certain disclosures (such as any you asked us to make). We'll provide one accounting a year for free but will charge a reasonable, cost-based fee if you ask for another one within 12 months.

Get a copy of this privacy notice

You can ask for a paper copy of this notice at any time, even if you have agreed to receive the notice electronically. We will provide you with a paper copy promptly.

Choose someone to act for you

If you have given someone medical power of attorney or if someone is your legal guardian, that person can exercise your rights and make choices about your health information. We will make sure the person has this authority and can act for you before we take any action.

Your Choices

For certain health information, you can tell us your choices about what we share. If you have a clear preference for how we share your information in the situations described below, talk to us. Tell us what you want us to do, and we will follow your instructions.

In these cases, you have both the right and choice to tell us to:

- Share information with your family, close friends, or others involved in your care
- Share information in a disaster relief situation

If you are not able to tell us your preference, for example if you are unconscious, we may go ahead and share your information if we believe it is in your best interest. We may also share your information when needed to lessen a serious and imminent threat to health or safety.

In these cases we never share your information unless you give us written permission:

- Marketing purposes
- Sale of your information
- Alcohol or substance abuse treatment information
- Confidential HIV-related information
- Genetic information
- Mental Health/Psychotherapy notes

We may contact you for fundraising efforts, but you can tell us not to contact you again.

File a complaint if you feel your rights are violated

- You can complain if you feel we have violated your rights by contacting our Privacy Officer at 1200 Eagle Avenue, Ocean, NJ 07712 or at (732) 660-6200. You can file a complaint with the U.S. Dept of Health and Human Services Office for Civil Rights by sending a letter to 200 Independence Avenue, S.W., Washington, D.C. 20201, calling 1-877-696-6775, or visiting www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/complaints/.
- We will not retaliate against you for filing a complaint.

For more information see: www.hhs.gov/ocr/privacy/hipaa/understanding/consumers/noticepp.html.

Changes to the Terms of this Notice - We can change the terms of this notice, and the changes will apply to all information we have about you. The new notice will be available upon request, in our office, and on our web site.

Notice revised and effective: March 05, 2018

NOTICE OF PRIVACY PRACTICES
ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

I understand that, under the Health Insurance Portability & Accountability Act of 1996 ("HIPPA"), I have certain rights to privacy regarding my protected health information. I understand that this information can and will be used to:

- Conduct, plan, and direct my treatment and follow-up among the multiple healthcare providers who may be involved in that treatment directly and indirectly.
- Obtain payment from third-party payers.
- Conduct normal healthcare operations such as quality assessments and physician certifications.

I have received, read and understand your Notice of Privacy Practices containing a more complete description of the uses and disclosures of my health information. I understand that this organization has the right to change its Notice of Privacy practices from time to time and that I may contact this organization at any time at the address above to obtain a current copy of the Notice of Private Practices.

I understand that I may request in writing that you restrict how my private information is used or disclosed to carry out treatment, payment or health care operations. I also understand you are not required to agree to my requested restrictions, but if you do agree then you are bound to abide by such restrictions.

Opioid Medication Agreement

Please read through each statement carefully and sign the last page of this packet. By signing this packet you are agreeing with all terms listed. Should you be prescribed an opioid medication you would be expected to follow all rules listed.

- I understand that my provider may recommend opioid medication to treat my pain.
- I understand that this medication may be prescribed if the provider believes it is needed to treat moderate to severe pain after other treatments are unsuccessful.
- I understand that many medications can have interactions with opioids and may increase or decrease their effect.
- I understand that I must regularly update my current medication list with my provider.
- I will tell my provider the truth about my complete personal drug and/or alcohol history as well as the complete drug and/or alcohol history of my family.
- I understand that the start of an opioid medication is a test. Continuation of this medication is based on evidence of benefit, side effects, and compliance of this medication.
- I have received the opioid information packet informing me of certain risks associated with opioid medication as well as the proper methods of disposal for opioid medications.
- I understand that if I suspect that I may be pregnant, or plan on becoming pregnant, I will notify my provider immediately.
- I understand that there are many non-opioid medications and alternative treatments that do not involve the use of opioids. Having been informed of these non-opioid medications and alternative treatments, I freely consent to the use of opioid medications.
- I understand that I will take my medications only as prescribed and I will not change the amount or dosage frequency without approval from my provider.
- I understand that unauthorized changes to my medications may result in my medications running out early. Early refills may not be allowed.
- I understand that I am responsible for my medication and it may not be replaced if it is lost, damaged, or stolen.
- I understand that if I do not stop my medications correctly, I may have withdrawal reactions that may include stomach pain, nausea, vomiting, sweating, anxiety, and general discomfort.

- I understand that I will obtain all opioid prescriptions from my provider or, during his or her absence, by the covering provider.
- I understand that I must keep (and be on time for) all of my scheduled appointments with my provider.
- I understand that requests for medication refills must be made Monday through Friday from 8am – 4pm, two working days ahead of when my prescription runs out.
- I understand that my provider may request to assess my response to my medication prior to giving a refill.
- I will obtain all controlled schedule medications from one pharmacy. I will notify my provider any changes to my current pharmacy.
- I hereby permit my provider to discuss all diagnostic and treatment details of my condition with all of my other providers and the pharmacists at the dispensing pharmacy.
- I understand that my provider will have access to and frequently check my controlled medication prescription history.
- I understand that I may have to submit random pill counts as well as urine and/or blood drug tests as requested by my provider to monitor my treatment. If I refuse or skip my appointment for drug testing, I understand that my treatment may be stopped.
- I will not share, sell, or otherwise permit others to have access to my medication.
- I will not consume alcohol while taking opioid medications.
- I will not use illegal drugs such as heroin, cocaine, marijuana, or amphetamines. I understand that if I do my treatment may be stopped.
- I will treat the staff respectfully at all times. I understand that if I am disrespectful to staff or disrupt the care of other patients my treatment may be stopped.
- Upon completion of opioid medication I will give my left over medication to the police station or any prescription drug drop box. (for a list of medicine drop box locations please ask the front desk)
- I understand that if I, at any time, do not follow the rules of this contract or I am found to be untruthful about my drug, alcohol, medical, or prescription history, it could result in the discontinuation of further treatments, discharge from practice, and/or a prompt referral for assessment of addiction or chemical dependency.

We here at Seaview Orthopedics and Medical Associates are committed to work with you in your efforts to get better. To aid in you in this work, we agree that:

- We will help you schedule regular appointments for medicine refills. If we have to cancel or change your appointments for any reason, we will make sure you have enough medication to last until your next appointment.
- We will make sure this treatment is as safe as possible. We will check regularly to make sure you are not having bad side effects.
- We will keep track of your prescriptions and test for drug use every so often to help you feel like you are being monitored well.
- We will help connect you with other forms of treatment to help you with your condition.
- We will help set up treatment goals and monitor your progress in reaching those goals.
- We will work with any other doctors or providers you are seeing so that they can treat you safely and effectively.
- We will work with your medical insurance providers to make sure you do not go without medicine because of paperwork or other things they may ask for.
- If you become addicted to these medications, we will help you get treatment so you can get off the medications safely.

I have read and understand the terms and conditions in the Opioid Medication Agreement. I have had the opportunity to ask questions. I agree to fill my prescriptions with only one pharmacy. If I need to change pharmacies, I will notify my physician about the change. I understand each of the statements written in the Opioid Medications Agreement and by signing, give my consent for treatment of my pain condition with opioid medications.
